CMBD will not normally charge for travel expenses for trainers and consultants delivering on-site within the Midlands. Outside the Midlands, mileage is charged at 45p per mile. Any other expenses (overnight accommodation or rail fares where appropriate) are agreed in advance and charged at cost.

Should a venue be required, CMBD are happy to help in sourcing and booking if required. All venue expenses can be paid for direct by the client or we can do so and will invoice at cost.

Half-days are charged at two thirds of the day rate.
